Atleta Paralímpico Americano Hunter Woodhall Ganó su Primera Medalla de Oro en los Juegos Paralímpicos de París

El velocista estadounidense Hunter Woodhall no necesitaba mirar lejos para encontrar inspiración en los Juegos Paralímpicos de este año.

El atleta de 25 años ganó su primera medalla de oro en los 400m T62 el viernes, después de ver a su esposa Tara Davis-Woodhall convertirse en la campeona olímpica de salto de longitud en agosto.

Corrió a la victoria con un tiempo de 46.36 segundos, por delante de Johannes Floors de Alemania y Olivier Hendriks de los Países Bajos, quienes ganaron la plata y el bronce respectivamente. Después de cruzar la línea de meta, Woodhall continuó corriendo para encontrar a su esposa en la multitud en el Stade de France.

Cuando se le preguntó cómo se sentía al ganar el oro junto con su esposa, Woodhall bromeó diciendo que estaba "esperando despertar".

"Tengo el mejor equipo del mundo", le dijo Woodhall a la transmisión de NBC. "Mejor equipo del mundo. No podría haberlo hecho sin ellos."

Woodhall había viajado para ver a su pareja competir en la capital francesa y fue la primera persona en celebrar con ella cuando ganó la medalla de oro, compartiendo un abrazo emocional en el frente del estadio.

"Fue increíble, tan surrealista. Estoy muy orgulloso. Nunca había querido algo tan desesperadamente para alguien más", le dijo Woodhall a Sport antes de volar a París.

"Todos los días de este año, simplemente hemos tratado de hacer las cosas correctas. Eso es lo que entrenamos. Nada está garantizado en los deportes, en el atletismo puede pasar cualquier cosa. Así que cuando realmente va de acuerdo con el plan y tienes ese momento de alivio, es surrealista. Fue un momento realmente especial."

La pareja se conoció durante una reunión de atletismo en la escuela secundaria en 2024 y se casaron cinco años después.

A lo largo de los años, han formado una asociación formidable tanto en la pista como fuera de ella, empujándose el uno al otro para alcanzar alturas que ninguno de los dos pensaba que era posible.

Ahora pasan casi todos los minutos juntos, ya sea entrenando en la pista o en el gimnasio, comiendo prácticamente la misma dieta o trabajando para aumentar su enorme presencia en las redes sociales, que ya tienen más de 866,000 suscriptores en su canal de YouTube, que documenta sus carreras deportivas y relación.

Con Davis-Woodhall habiendo alcanzado su gran potencial al asegurar una medalla de oro olímpica, era el turno de Woodhall de replicar su logro esta semana.

París es el tercer Juego Paralímpico de
