Esta semana, la Cámara de Representantes aprobó una resolución republicana que condena a Kamala Harris por su papel en la gestión de la administración Biden de la migración

Como parte de un esfuerzo acelerado para retratar a la presunta nominada demócrata como una amenaza para la seguridad fronteriza, los republicanos la han acusado de ser laxa en la aplicación de las leyes de inmigración.

Republicanos critican a Kamala Harris por su manejo de la migración

Después de la decisión de Joe Biden de retirarse de la carrera presidencial, Donald Trump también ha lanzado una serie de nuevos ataques contra el récord de Harris en temas de inmigración, un tema políticamente volátil que se espera juegue un papel central en las elecciones presidenciales de noviembre.

"Ella fue la zarina de la frontera, pero nunca fue a la frontera", dijo Trump durante un mitin en Carolina del Norte el miércoles, repitiendo dos falacias en una sola línea de ataque.

Como vicepresidenta, a Harris se le asignó una tarea abrumadora al inicio de su mandato: abordar las "causas raíz" de la migración de los países del triángulo norte de Guatemala, Honduras y El Salvador. Sin embargo, en ningún momento se le encargó la política fronteriza. Esa es la responsabilidad del secretario de Seguridad Nacional, Alejandro Mayorkas, quien estuvo con Harris cuando visitó la frontera en junio de 2024, tres meses después de que se le asignara la tarea.

En cambio, el mandato de Harris, según lo establecido por el presidente, fue reunirse con funcionarios gubernamentales y socios del sector privado para abordar problemas persistentes en la región, como la pobreza, la violencia y la falta de oportunidades económicas, que impulsan a las personas a migrar de sus países de origen a los Estados Unidos, dijo Theresa Cardinal Brown, asesora principal de políticas de inmigración y fronteras en el Centro de Políticas Bipartidistas.

"Fue un enfoque diplomático y de desarrollo, no un enfoque fronterizo".

La distinción no ha impedido que los republicanos la califiquen engañosamente como la "zarina de la frontera" de la nación y la responsabilicen de los aumentos agudos en la migración bajo la administración Biden. En un comunicado el jueves, el portavoz de la Cámara de Representantes, Mike Johnson, acusó a la vicepresidenta de no haber hecho "nada para abordar la crisis que empeora en la frontera".

"El resultado de su inacción ha sido un número récord de cruces ilegales, comunidades abrumadas y una evisceración del estado de derecho", dijo.

Los republicanos están invirtiendo decenas de millones de dólares en anuncios que hacen hincapié en esa conexión mientras resaltan comentarios anteriores de Harris en los que expresó una apertura a ciertas propuestas de tendencia progresista, como reimaginar a la Patrulla Fronteriza y Aduanas de Estados Unidos (CBP, por sus siglas en inglés) e
